

Conferences & Events

Welcome to Tinakilly Country House & Gardens

Tinakilly Country House is the ideal venue for small conferences and business meetings. Less than an hour's drive from Dublin, the hotel offers a working environment with no distractions, together with the highest professional standard of service.

The ambience of the hotel and grounds, the superbly appointed bedrooms and the excellent international reputation of our dining rooms combine to make Tinakilly a much sought after venue for prestigious business gatherings and corporate entertainment.

We invite you to look at our facilities, our strategic location and the proximity of so many sporting, touring and historic attractions. Having done so, you can come to only one conclusion – the suitability of Tinakilly to meet the needs of your guests and delegates.

Once the home of Captain Robert Halpin, who laid the first transatlantic telegraph cables between Ireland and Canada in 1866 ~ a pioneer in communications. We hope you'll feel inspired and enjoy Tinakilly Country House Hotel.
